

- Specialty Workshops

Special classes for Foundation students hosted by their teachers.

- Extracurricular Activities

Educational competitions, Reading Club, Poetry, and many others.

ANIJZ Resource Lab perceives as a valuable academic support service that affords students' chances at the Foundation Program to enhance their academic skills and learning competencies at the University of Nizwa. ANJIZ programs' services are the base that bridge the Foundation with academic programs to enhance students' English Language, mathematics and digital literacy skills in their future studies.

Contact information:

 uonanjiz@unizwa.edu.om

 @AnjizC

 Uonanjiz

جامعة نِزْوَى
University of Nizwa

ANJIZ Resource Lab

AIMS

1. Provide foundation students with high-quality facilities and programs via academic consultation instructional sessions, individualized peer tutorials' support, educational workshops and extra-curricular activities that stimulate learner' learning engagement progress.
2. Establish a free-stress learning environment for foundation learners to strengthen their learning skills through realizing their academic requirements and interest before joining their degree programs.
4. Provide foundation learners with enormous academic open resources to build their self-independent study, research abilities, and self-reliance that empower their learning experience.

5. Promote students' learning abilities and skills to enhance their academic excellence in English Language, Digital Literacy, mathematics Skills.

PROGRAMS

- FI Remedial Support

One-on-one academic assistance by experienced Foundation Institute's teachers to assist you in reviewing your curricula, homework, assignments, and research references.

- Peer Tutorials

One-on-one academic assistance by a trained peer to help you with your curricula, homework, assignments, and preparing for your upcoming examinations.

- Conversation (Voice)

Improve your English speaking skills through group conversations.

- Workshops

Workshops at ANJIZ highlight academic issues Foundation students 'face in their studies, such as Reading, Writing, exam preparations, and many other interesting topics.

- Self-Study

Self-study, self-learning, self-reading, TOFEL practice, listening practice, and doing homework.

